COALINGA MAN ARRESTED AFTER SEARCH WARRANT

On Wednesday August 29, 2012 officers from the Coalinga Police Department executed two search warrants within the City of Coalinga. One search warrant was done in the 100 block of Palomino while the second one was done in the 300 block of Adams Street.

Officers detained the residents at both locations and located Coalinga Resident Martin Corpus III at the Adams Street address. Searches were conducted at both houses where three firearms were located at the Palomino Address and approximately 2 ounces of Marijuana packaged for sale was located at the Adams Street address. Corpus was cooperative with officers and admitted to the weapons and marijuana as being his. Corpus was arrested for weapon and drug charges due to him residing at both homes which are family members. Corpus was transported to the Coalinga City Jail for booking.

Corpus was booked on two felony counts, one count of Possession of Marijuana for sales and another charge of Possession of controlled substances while armed with a loaded firearm. Corpus was later transported to the Fresno County Jail.

Martin Corpus III

The above individual is presumed innocent until proven guilty in a court of law.
