"Narcotics Investigation Concludes With Arrests"

On February 1, 2013, at approximately 1:00 am, Coalinga Police Department Narcotics Detectives concluded a lengthy investigation into narcotics sales by executing a search warrant in the 500 block of East Valley Street.

During the execution of the search warrant, methamphetamines, cash, and indicia of narcotics sales was recovered.

Detectives arrested 29 year old Coalinga resident and active parolee Brian Gressman for various charges including possession of a controlled substance for sale, paraphernalia, and other related charges. Gressman was transported to the Fresno County Jail where he was booked into custody.

All persons are presumed innocent until found guilty by a court of law.

The Coalinga Police Department encourages all residents to report narcotics related activity by calling dispatch at (559) 935-1525. You can remain anonymous.
