TWO STOLEN VEHICLES RECOVERED

On November 4, 2013, a victim directed Coalinga Police personnel to what he believed was his stolen 18 foot utility trailer. Officers found that all of the vehicle identification numbers had been removed from the trailer.

Information was developed by Corporal Chris Simons that led to the contacting of 44-year-old Leslie Hidas and 47-year-old Clarisa Quintanilla at their residence in the 500 block of E. Polk St. Detective Earl Oneal located further evidence connecting Hidas and Quintanilla to the stolen trailer.

A computer check of the couple's Budget moving truck showed that it was reported stolen in San Francisco, California.

Both Hidas and Quintanilla were arrested for Possession of Stolen Property and booked at the Coalinga Police Department and both of the stolen vehicles were stored.

All suspects are presumed innocent until proven guilty in a court of law.
