"Burglary Suspect Apprehended inside home"

On July 11, 2015, at approximately 7:17 pm, Coalinga Police Officers responded to a condominium complex located in the 200 block of Roosevelt Street after the residence's alarm was activated.

Upon arrival, police found that forced entry into the home was made via a broken back window. Officers were able to contact the home's owner, who indicated that no one should be inside.

Upon entering the home, Officers located and arrested 21 year old Jose Ortega Munoz.

The investigation revealed that Munoz was related to the home's owner. At the time of arrest, an active restraining order was in place barring Munoz from contacting the homeowner and from being on the property.

Munoz was booked into the Fresno County Main Jail for burglary, violating the terms of an active restraining order, and for violating the terms of his probation.

"All suspects are considered innocent until proven guilty in a court of law"
