Fentanyl Recovered During Arrest

On October 23, 2024, at about 2:30pm, officers received an anonymous tip that Coalinga resident and wanted felon, Daniel Diaz Aguilar, was staying at an apartment located in the 300 block of W. Polk. Officers also received information that Aguilar was in possession of a significant number of illegal narcotics, specifically blue "M-30" fentanyl pills. Aguilar was wanted for three outstanding Fresno County warrants, one of which was a No Bail felony Post Release Community Supervision (PRCS) violation warrant. Aguilar was also on Fresno County PRCS and open to search and seizure.

Officers arrived at the apartment unit and located Aguilar inside of one of the bedrooms. Officers arrested Aguilar for his outstanding warrants and conducted a search of his room incident to arrest and per his PRCS terms and conditions. Officers located, seized, and collected approximately 1oz. of crystal methamphetamine, 1oz. of fentanyl, 3oz. of processed marijuana, and narcotics paraphernalia. Aguilar was additionally charged with multiple narcotics violations.
